

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT: Blanca Mendoza

Blanca started volunteering in the Resource and Assistive Technology Center in July 2009. Blanca is a graduate of San Pedro High School. She continued her education at Harbor College where she was known for being a great student, who was also very cooperative and helpful.

Blanca's HRC Counselor Iris Soto had noticed what a hard worker she could be, and when Iris learned that Blanca was interested in gaining work experience as a volunteer, she referred her to the HRC Resource and Assistive Technology Center. While volunteering in the Resource Center Blanca quickly demonstrated her ability to learn quickly and accept new tasks willingly.

Blanca helps the Resource Center to serve our clients, families and community in many ways. She compiles packets of information and delivers booklets to HRC staff throughout the agency that are provided to clients and families. She assists others with office tasks which include organizing and filing documents, and other projects as needed.

The Resource Center truly enjoys Blanca's positive attitude and cheerful demeanor each day when she arrives. Thank you, Blanca, for being a wonderful addition to our HRC team. ■

Blanca Mendoza is a valuable member of the Resource Center team.
